NEWS:

There will not be a newsletter for July and August. The members who compile the newsletter will be on vacation! The next issue will be in September but the Happy Hours will be held as usual during those two months.

Two more French proverbs: "L'appétit vient en mangeant" (The more you eat, the more you want.)
"Qui va a la chasse, perd sa place" (If you abandon your post, someone will have replaced you when you return.)

The visit to the Cezanne exhibit at the National Gallery on May 17th was canceled, but on Sunday June 24th at 2:00 pm, another tour has been organized to visit the same exhibit. Julia Langlay who was a Gallery guide and director of "Arts and Humanity" will be our guide. Thank you for reserving a place by calling Claire Wagner 202-332-5501 or clairierre@verizon.net

We will celebrate Bastille Day Saturday July 14th at the home of Dolores Masson, 13 Faquier Ct. Edgewater at 6:00 pm. Each guest will bring one of the following: an hors-d'œuvre, a salad, a main dish, a hot vegetable or a dessert. The number of people attending will be limited to 40.

For reservation this year you can use SignUpGenius and sign up indicating the number attending and what you will bring.

On September 16th, Edith Meyer Cord, who as a child spent WWII hidden with a family in Paris, will speak to us about her experience. She was interviewed on a segment of the "60 minutes" broadcast last fall. More specific information will be in the September newsletter, but please save the date as of now.
